

In the Footsteps of Saints & Divine Mercy A Catholic Pilgrimage through Poland and Central Europe Led by Father Matthew Flatley of the Diocese of Jefferson City April 5 – 20, 2027

This Catholic pilgrimage, led by Father Matthew Flatley of the Diocese of Jefferson City, invites you on a profound spiritual journey through the heart of Poland and into Central Europe in 2027. You will walk in the living footsteps of the saints who shaped the Catholic soul of nations—St. Faustina Kowalska, St. John Paul II, St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Adalbert, and many more—while standing before the miraculous Icon of the Black Madonna and the original Image of the Merciful Jesus. Under Father Flatley's gentle pastoral guidance, each day unfolds as a chapter of grace: the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, moments of quiet prayer, and shared reflection that draw you ever deeper into the mystery of God's mercy, the witness of martyrdom, and the triumphant beauty of the Church across the centuries.

Day 1 – April 5, 2027 (Monday)

Your pilgrimage begins as you depart your home city aboard an international flight bound for Poland. Two meals are served in flight while you prepare your heart for the sacred ground that awaits.

Day 2 – April 6, 2027 (Tuesday): Warsaw arrival

Wheels touch down in Warsaw and you are warmly welcomed by your tour escort. After a smooth transfer and hotel check-in, you step into the first sacred space of the journey: St. James Church. Here, in 1925, a young Helena Kowalska—soon to become St. Faustina—knelt in tears, poured out her vocational struggles in confession, and received the decisive spiritual direction from Rev. James Dąbrowski that launched her into religious life and the worldwide mission of Divine Mercy. Dinner at the hotel brings the day to a peaceful close. Overnight at the hotel in Warsaw. (D)

Day 3 – April 7, 2027 (Wednesday): Warsaw Tour

After breakfast, the day opens with profound grace as you Celebrate Mass at the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy, the very convent where Helena Kowalska crossed the threshold on 1 August 1925, received the habit, and began the extraordinary revelations of Divine Mercy that would forever change the Church's prayer. You then journey through Warsaw's storied streets—passing the ancient Barbican and Market Square, St. John's Cathedral (coronation and burial place of Polish kings and saints), the Royal Castle, Presidential Palace, St. Ann's Church, Holy Cross Church (resting place of Chopin's heart), and the lively Nowy Świat—before driving the Royal Route to the romantic Łazienki Park with its Chopin monument and Palace on the Water.
