Tuesday, September 2: The pilgrimage begins as you depart from St. Louis, flying overnight to Ireland. Enjoy dinner and breakfast while onboard, preparing for a deeply spiritual journey filled with opportunities for reflection, prayer, and cultural exploration.

Wednesday, September 3: Arriving at Shannon Airport at 7:30 AM, you'll be warmly greeted by your tour manager. From there, you'll board the motor coach and head straight to Six Mile Bridge Church. This charming church, dedicated to St. Finnachta, will host your first Mass in Ireland, allowing you to step into the rich spiritual heritage of the Irish Catholic faith. After Mass, you'll travel to Bunratty Castle, a majestic medieval fortress where the past comes alive through its historical exhibitions. For lunch, you'll dine at Durty Nelly's, a pub steeped in Irish history and known for its vibrant atmosphere. Following this, you'll travel to Ennis, County Clare, where you will check into your hotel and take time to relax. In the evening, Father Hambrough will host a dinner with his relatives, offering a personal connection to his Irish roots. Enjoy this intimate moment with family, then retire to your hotel for an overnight stay.

L, D Ennis, County Clare

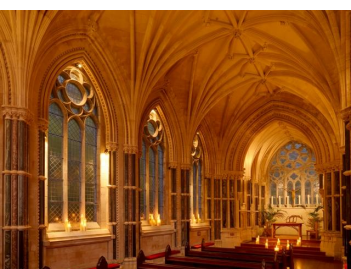

Thursday, September 4: Your day begins with a trip to Claremorris, where you'll celebrate Mass at the church where Father Hambrough's father once worshiped. This deeply personal visit will allow you to reflect on the importance of family and faith in Irish Catholic tradition. The pilgrimage continues to Ballintubber Abbey, a stunning 12th-century abbey founded by the Kings of Connacht, and still a functioning place of worship. Here, you will be able to pray and reflect in the tranquil surroundings of the abbey, which has remained continuously active for over 800 years. From there, you'll journey to Croagh Patrick, the holy mountain where St. Patrick is said to have fasted and prayed for 40 days in the 5th century. Known as Ireland's spiritual heart, the mountain is a place of deep pilgrimage, where you can reflect on your faith and the legacy of St. Patrick. After your time at Croagh Patrick, you'll drive to Westport, a picturesque town nestled in the countryside, where you'll check into your hotel. Dinner will be served at your hotel, and you'll enjoy an overnight stay, surrounded by the peace of the Irish landscape.

B & D West Port

Friday, September 5: After breakfast at the hotel, you'll travel to Knock Shrine, one of the most significant Marian pilgrimage sites in Ireland. In 1879, a group of Irish people witnessed an apparition of the Virgin Mary, St. Joseph, and St. John the Evangelist at the gable wall of the church. This event led to Knock becoming a place of devotion and prayer, where you will celebrate Mass and experience the serene beauty of this sacred space. Following your time at the shrine, you will return to Croagh Patrick for further reflection and prayer, standing in the footsteps of St. Patrick. Your day then continues with a visit to Kylemore Abbey, a Benedictine monastery founded in the 19th century by a wealthy family and later transformed into a place of prayer and retreat by Benedictine nuns. You'll have time to admire the stunning architecture and peaceful gardens of this holy site. The final stop of the day is Galway, a vibrant city known for its artistic atmosphere and Catholic history. After a tour of the city, you'll enjoy dinner outside the hotel before retiring for the night in Galway.

B & D Galway

Saturday, September 6: After breakfast, you'll check out of your hotel in Galway and begin your journey to one of Ireland's most beloved natural wonders—the Cliffs of Moher. These towering cliffs rise 700 feet above the Atlantic Ocean, offering breathtaking views and a deep sense of awe. The cliffs have also been a place of pilgrimage for centuries, as they remind visitors of the power and majesty of God’s creation. Your next destination is Fossa, where you’ll Celebrate a Pilgrim Mass at the Church of the Prince of Peace. This church, with its windows offering panoramic views of the surrounding mountains, serves as a serene place for prayer and reflection. The day continues with a visit to the Killarney Brewing & Distilling Company, where you’ll learn about Irish brewing traditions. Father Hambrough’s family will also host a Pilgrim luncheon/early dinner, giving you a chance to connect with the Irish roots of your pilgrimage. Afterward, check into your hotel in Killarney for an overnight stay.

B & D Killarney

Sunday, September 7: Following breakfast at the hotel, you’ll Celebrate Mass at the Killarney Cathedral, a magnificent neo-Gothic church that serves as a spiritual center for the town. The cathedral’s grandeur and peaceful atmosphere offer a perfect setting for prayer and contemplation. The rest of the day is yours to enjoy at your leisure. Father Hambrough will have time to visit with family, while you have the option to explore Dingle, a charming town known for its rich Catholic heritage and picturesque views, or visit a traditional sheep farm, where the faith and labor of the Irish people have shaped the landscape. Alternatively, you can spend time in Killarney, a town famous for its natural beauty and peaceful parks. Enjoy dinner on your own, exploring local dining options, before returning to your hotel for an overnight stay.

B & D Killarney

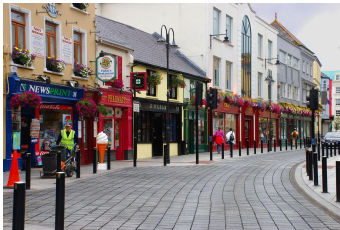

Monday, September 8: The day begins with breakfast at the hotel, followed by a visit to & celebration of Mass at a Mass Rock, a sacred site where Catholics secretly gathered to celebrate Mass during times of persecution by the British. These open-air Mass sites serve as a powerful reminder of the resilience and faith of Irish Catholics. After Mass, you’ll take a scenic drive along the Ring of Kerry, a renowned route that showcases Ireland’s natural beauty, from sweeping coastlines to lush valleys and rugged mountains. This breathtaking journey through the heart of the Irish countryside will inspire awe and reflection on God’s creation. Enjoy dinner outside the hotel, followed by an overnight stay in Killarney.

B & D Killarney

Tuesday, September 9: After breakfast, you’ll check out of your hotel and head to Cork, where you’ll visit St. Colman’s Cathedral in Cobh. This magnificent cathedral overlooks the harbor and serves as a testament to the enduring Catholic faith in Ireland. You’ll celebrate Mass here, reflecting on the beauty of the church and the long history of faith that it represents. After Mass, visit the Titanic Museum in Cobh, which commemorates the lives lost in the tragic sinking of the Titanic, many of whom were Irish immigrants. In the afternoon, you’ll drive to the Garryvoe Hotel, which overlooks the vast Atlantic Ocean. Here, you’ll check in for an overnight stay and enjoy a peaceful dinner, reflecting on the journey thus far.

B & D Garryvoe Hotel

Wednesday, September 10: After breakfast, you’ll check out of your hotel and travel to the Rock of Cashel, one of Ireland’s most iconic landmarks. This ancient hilltop fortress, which has served as a religious and royal center for centuries, is home to a 12th-century cathedral, Cormac’s Chapel, and a round tower. The site is a powerful reminder of the Catholic history that has shaped Ireland’s identity. The pilgrimage continues to Dublin, where you’ll enjoy a panoramic tour of the city, taking in its famous landmarks such as Trinity College and Dublin Castle. You’ll also Celebrate Mass at St. Mary’s Pro Cathedral, one of Dublin’s most important Catholic sites. The day concludes with a visit to the Guinness Brewery, where you'll learn about the history of Ireland's most famous beverage. Afterward, check into the Portmarnock Hotel for dinner and overnight.

B & D Portmarnock Hotel

Thursday, September 11: Your final full day in Ireland begins the day with a peaceful Mass at Whitefriar Street Church, a historic and serene place known for housing the relics of St. Valentine. Afterward, head to Trinity College to marvel at the Book of Kells, an exquisite illuminated manuscript displayed in the stunning Old Library, a space filled with centuries of knowledge and Irish literary treasures. Enjoy a leisurely lunch at a charming café nearby, savoring classic Irish dishes. In the afternoon, immerse yourself in the EPIC Museum, an interactive experience that tells the powerful story of Irish emigration and the global legacy of the Irish diaspora. As the day winds down, return to the tranquil coastal village of Portmarnock for some rest, then enjoy a farewell dinner at a in this beautiful hotel, indulging in delicious Irish cuisine and sharing stories from the day's adventures. Finish the evening with an overnight stay in Portmarnock, reflecting on the cultural richness of Dublin.

B & D Portmarnock Hotel

Friday, September 12: After breakfast, you'll depart for Dublin Airport, bringing with you cherished memories of your pilgrimage to Ireland. This journey has been one of reflection, renewal, and deep connection to the faith and heritage of the Irish people. You'll return home to St. Louis, forever changed by the sacred places and rich history you've encountered along the way.

RESERVATIONS AND PAYMENT: Travel Tyme requires a deposit of $400 per person that is to be sent with the application at the time of booking. This deposit forms a part of your final payment, which must be received by us no later than 120 days prior to departure. Seats are limited on this Pilgrimage, so we suggest an early booking.

CANCELLATIONS: Please make all cancellations in writing. The following cancellation charges apply: If cancelled 120 days or more prior to departure, a $75 administration fee is charged. If cancelled 119 days prior, the total amount of the trip will be forfeited. In addition, once the airline tickets are issued, about 60 days prior to departure, the cost is non-refundable.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: We strongly recommend the purchase of travel insurance to recuperate the penalties charged for cancellation for health reasons. You would be fully covered, except if pre-existing conditions are evident. Even so, the insurer waives the exclusion for pre-existing conditions, if insurance is purchased within 15 days of deposit received by Travel Tyme.

PASSPORT AND VISA: For travel to the United Kingdom, a valid passport is required for all U.S. citizens. For those holding passports of other countries, visas may be required. Please check with Travel Tyme for further information.
