Join a transformative spiritual journey blending faith, exploration, and the historic Camino de Santiago, as Rwandan genocide survivor Immaculée Ilibagiza shares her story of redemption. Raised in a peaceful village, she excelled in school and studied engineering at the National University of Rwanda, but in 1994, the president's assassination sparked the genocide, forcing her to hide for 91 days in a tiny bathroom with seven women. Surrounded by chaos and evil, she turned to the rosary, her father's parting gift, and prayed to Our Lady. Starting in St. Louis, Missouri, the trip explores Portugal and Spain's sacred sites and cultural landmarks, featuring the Portuguese Coastal Camino from Vigo to Santiago de Compostela, with reflection, community, physical challenges, group meals, and spiritual growth. Hotels include breakfast and dinner, as Immaculée inspires with messages of love, hope, forgiveness, Our Lady's miracles, global apparitions like Our Lady of Kibeho in Rwanda, and the Rosary's life-changing power.

July 16, 2026: Your pilgrimage begins upon landing in Lisbon, where you'll request the shuttle to the convenient Melia Lisboa hotel near the airport. There, the group will convene and unwind, laying the groundwork for a profound spiritual journey. Dedicate this travel day to rejuvenation through rest, prayer, and mental preparation for the rich cultural and faith-filled experiences to come.

July 17, 2026: From the hotel, we depart Lisbon for Fátima, a world-renowned pilgrimage site, with a meaningful stop in Santarém. Here, visit the Church of the Holy Miracle to witness the site of the 13th-century Eucharistic miracle, where a host reportedly turned to flesh and blood—a profound moment for contemplation and faith. Continue to Fátima, check into your hotel, and enjoy dinner there. In the evening, join the candlelight procession at the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Fátima, a moving tradition where thousands carry candles in devotion to the Virgin Mary. (Breakfast & Dinner Included)

July 18, 2026: Dedicate ½ the day to exploring Fátima's sacred grounds, including the Basilica of Our Lady of the Rosary, the Chapel of Apparitions (where the Virgin Mary appeared to three shepherd children in 1917), and the museum detailing the history of the apparitions and prophecies. Visit the homes of the visionary children in nearby Aljustrel for a glimpse into their humble lives. Attend Mass. After, we drive to Vigo to check into a hotel. Lunch stop on the way or before we leave Fatima.

(Breakfast & Dinner Included)
